Becoming the Blessed Community*

What does it mean to participate in a faith experience/expression larger and more complete than our individual perceptions?

a reference to Thomas Kelly's "A Testament of Devotion"*

Come join us for a weekend of camaraderie, personal sharing and spiritual exploration at beautiful, secluded Camp Myrtlewood. Bring poetry, musical instruments or whatever you enjoy sharing with others. You may want to read Thomas Kelly's "A Testament of Devotion;" 1 Corinthians, chapters 12 & 13; Ephesians 4:1-16; and Romans 12:1-13 as part of your preparation for the weekend. Bunkhouse lodging and Saturday/Sunday meals are included. You will need to bring your own sleeping bag, pillow, towel and personal items. It can be cold/rainy at this time of year, so come prepared.

Dinner on your own Friday evening. Snacks are welcomed!

Registration: Bob Marvos at 541-330-3937 or rmmarvos@gmail.com

Cost: Approximately $50.00/person, depending on how many attend. Financial support is available if the cost is a burden. Please don't let this stop you from attending.

Need a ride? Let Bob know and he will try to match you up with someone in your area.

Directions:

From I-5

Take Roseburg exit 119 to Winston/Coos Bay (OR-99 goes to Winston, OR-42 goes on to Coos Bay). Go about 3.5 miles to the center of Winston, and turn right on Hwy 42/ Coos Bay-Roseburg Hwy. Go about 39 miles to Bridge. Turn left at Myrtle Creek Road (the only option at that intersection), which comes up after mile marker 31. The entrance to Camp Myrtlewood is on your right 3.5 miles from Hwy 42.

From US 101

Coming from north of Coos Bay Take 101 South out of Coos Bay. About 4 miles south of Coos Bay, you'll exit to the left from 101 onto OR 42, toward Coquille. Travel south on 42 through Coquille and on to Myrtle Point.
